Women Together 2026:
The Cost of Convenience: How Technology, Media and Ease are Redefining What We Value

Presented by
Ruth Ann Buntin

Possibility Strategy Architect and Asset-Based Coach

Wednesday, January 21, 2026 - 7:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.

We live in a culture optimized for convenience, where attention has become currency and connection competes with constant noise. Technology and media promise efficiency, yet quietly reshape how we think, relate, and decide what matters. This session explores how convenience culture redefines the worth of our time, focus, and relationships—and what that means for how we live and lead. Using the Together. Resilience. Unity. Mobilization. Possibility. lens, participants will reflect on how to stay intentional amid constant reactivity and consider what it takes to remain grounded and connected in an era that “rewards” distraction.

Registration fee: $25.00
